*CALL TO WORSHIP

Philippians 2:5-11

Dr. Andrew Chaney

One: "Having this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.

All: And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

One: Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and under the earth,

All: And every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

Let us worship God together!

CONFESSION OF SIN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. We humbly pray and ask for Your mercy. Forgive us and set us free from a past that we cannot change. Open to us a future in which we can be changed. Grant us grace to grow more and more into Your likeness. We pray in Your holy name...

HYMN TO JOY

Christ is risen! Raise your spirits from the caverns of despair.
Walk with gladness in the morning. See what love can do and dare.
Drink the wine of resurrection, not a servant, but a friend.
Jesus is our strong companion. Joy and peace shall never end.

ANTHEM

Where Charity and Love Prevail

K. T. Kosche

Where charity and love prevail there God is ever found. Brought here together by Christ's love, but love are we thus bound. With grateful joy and holy fear His charity we learn; let us with heart and mind and soul now love Him in return. Forgive we now each other's faults as we our faults confess and let us love each other well in Christian holiness. Let strife among us be unknown; let all contention cease; be God's the glory that we seek; be ours His holy peace. Let us recall that in our midst dwells Christ, His only Son; as members of His Body joined we are in Him made one. For love excludes no race or clan that names the Savior's Name; His family embrace all whose Father is the same.

This 18th-century text celebrating the sovereignty of Christ has been through several expansions and contractions before reaching its present form. It is set here to the oldest American hymn tune in continuous use since first published in 1793, which was written for it.

love; yes, they'll know we are Chris - tians by our love.

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day.

Though I May Speak

The Gift of Love

1 Though I may speak with brav - est fire,
 2 Though I may give all I pos - sess,
 3 Come, Spir - it, come, our hearts con - trol;

and have the gift to all in - spire,
 and striv - ing so my love pro - fess,
 our spir - its long to be made whole.

and have not love, my words are vain,
 but not be given by love with - in,
 Let in - ward love guide ev - ery deed;

as sound - ing brass, and hope - less gain.
 the prof - it soon turns strange - ly thin.
 by this we wor - ship, and are freed.

As paraphrases of 1 Corinthians 13:1, 3 the first two stanzas here are in the first person singular, yet they lead into a plural prayer for the gift of such love, for it thrives in community. These words are especially poignant with this adaptation of an English folk melody.
