

“To some, the image of the pale body glimmering on a dark night whispers of defeat. What good is a God who does not control, the Son’s suffering?” But another sound can be heard: the shout of a God crying out to human beings, “ I love you”. Love compressed for all history in that lonely figure on the cross, who said that he could call down angels at any moment on a rescue mission, but chose not to—because of us”. (Philip Yancey) My friend, there is a reason that Christ died on that cross over 2000 years ago, and the reason is close at hand. The reason is “us”. May you never forget the love He has for you and the cost He was willing to pay for your redemption.
