

Hezekiah's Legacy

2 Kings 18, 2 Chronicles 31

Many world leaders harbor concern about how they will be remembered by succeeding generations. With that in mind, recent US Presidents have overseen the construction of memorials labeled "Presidential Libraries". I have appreciated visiting two such "libraries". Filled with historical information, it becomes readily apparent that the museum section of the building is carefully crafted to portray the former Executive in a very favorable light.

Today we view the Biblical legacy of Judah's King Hezekiah. Keep in mind this is not a skewed analysis intended to paint a sugar-coated portrait of the man. It is The Lord's evaluation. No, Hezekiah was not perfect. No one is. But his legacy is one worth emulating.

2. He _____
2 Kings 18:5

3. He _____
2 Chronicles 31:21

"Let him who walks in the dark,
who has no light,
Trust in the name of the Lord
and rely on God."

Isaiah 50:10
